Message

Dear Friends,

During the rebuilding of the Abbey on Iona George MacLeod prayed the following prayer –

It is not just the interior of these walls
it is our own inner beings you have renewed.
We are your temple not made with hands.
We are your body.
If every wall should crumble,
and every church decay, we are your habitation.
Nearer are you than breathing,
closer than hands and feet.
Our are the eyes with which you, in the mystery,
look out in compassion on the world.
So we bless you for this place,
for your directing of us,
your redeeming of us, and your indwelling.
Take us 'outside the camp', Lord,
outside holiness,
out to where soldiers gamble, and thieves curse,
and nations clash at the cross-roads of the world . . . .
So shall this building continue to be justified.

As many will be well aware we are facing the prospect of considerable expense simply in maintaining the facilities we have - so why do it?

Coming across it again today George MacLeod's prayer is an important reminder to me that although the building may be important to us, especially as a place for worship, its call to us (its justification) is meaningless in comparison to our own continued renewal.

It is we who are to be God's temple, not the building. It is God's presence within us, closer than breathing, which works through us to renew the world and so MacLeod asks God to take us 'outside the camp', even 'outside holiness', to where there is gambling, cursing and conflict; in other words to be Christ-like.

May our church building be the place where we meet together with God in order to be strengthened in our faith and compassion and so empowered to 'be Church', both in all we do in the wonderful facilities we have and in our going out to 'be Church' in our community and to change the world.

Yours in Christ,

Prayers for February

Feb 3rd - Blind me with your love, Lord, that I might see – show me where your love is needed.

Bind me with your love, Lord, that I might be free – take me captive, yet release me from all fear in freely sharing it. Amen.

Feb 10th - Lord, as others have passed it on to me, help me to share the gospel. Let what is in my heart overflow into my life, so that the risen Jesus may be seen and known through me. Amen.

Feb 17th - Each day, Lord, help me to wake from sleep as I shall one day wake from death – in the knowledge of your presence and the hope of resurrection. So, may my faith shed light from another world, to lighten the cares of this one. Amen.

Feb 24th - When ailments beset me and I feel weak, when illness knocks me off my feet,
when the years weigh upon me heavily and my gait falters as I walk less steadily;
let me then remember, O Lord:
I shall be renewed, not just restored. Amen.

General Data Protection Regulations

In May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) came into force throughout Europe. GDPR is a regulation that requires businesses to protect the personal data and privacy of EU citizens in transactions that occur within the EU member states.

However, the General Data Protection Regulations does also affect groups such as charities, which means that we as a church have to comply with the regulations too.

GDPR means that we are no longer able to circulate our church directory to everyone as we have in the past.

In future the full directory with addresses and full contact details will ONLY be available to the Minister and Serving Elders.

For our Church Friends, they will be given details of only those who are their Church Friends.

It has been decided that there will always be a serving elder on duty in the vestibule, both before and after the morning service so that everyone will have an opportunity to share in confidence any concerns that they have.

So that everyone knows who the serving elders are they will in future wear an identity badge.

We hope that in time the GDPR regulations will become less exacting, but for now both Don and all the serving elders appreciate your help and support – Thank you.

Report on the Churches Together in Barnstaple meeting on the 20th January

Before Christmas, under the Churches Together banner we had the Nativity Trail, including 2 donkeys. Unfortunately the weather was extremely wet cold and windy. However about 30 children took part with their parents, most of who came back here for very welcome hot drinks and other refreshments. We need to thank Anthea Coates and Joan Cole for heading up this very special event.

Also from Churches Together some of us joined with Harmony Choir to rehearse and join the choir in carol singing in Green Lanes.

I am sure that everyone will be pleased to hear that the Community Christmas Day lunch, headed by Roger Bartlett, was once again a success with almost 100 guests and helpers sitting down to an excellent lunch and entertainment. Team members came from a mix of 11 local church congregations.

In the week before Christmas, a Christmas Day meal was planned with support from the Salvation Army at Freedom for rough sleepers and those in genuine crisis. Around 30 people including helpers attended that event.

At last weeks Churches Together meeting we began planning the Good Friday Walk of Witness in the High Street and the Pentecost celebration in the Pannier Market.

The next meeting will be on the 26th March.

Painting & Decorating

February 2019 sees the continuation of the rolling programme of painting the interior of the church building. The property committee will do their best to minimise the disturbance to all the activities that take place in the church - but please be tolerant as it will not be possible to do this without some disruption to some of you. It will involve the vestibule and consequently access to the building through the front door and access to the Ladies & Gents toilets off the vestibule.

You can find information on the relevant dates on the notice board in the corridor.

'Thanks a lot for being a huge blessing in my life... I will always be grateful'

Sadly for us, though joyful for her, it is time to bid farewell to Prossy Nakabira in Uganda now that she has returned home to her village. The good news is that she has successfully completed her year at Kira Farm, sponsored by Christ Church. It has been such a privilege receiving her letters and writing to her, and hearing the amazing progress she has made. She has proved herself to be a person of great fortitude and determination who has joyfully made the most of every opportunity that has been presented to her, and who has been extremely grateful for her sponsorship. She has now returned home from Kira with a wealth of skills that will benefit both her family and her community. We now let her go on her way with our love and prayers, and with many blessings and great hopes for her in 2019 and beyond.

Here are extracts from the last two letters she wrote in November and December – the first, as you see, responding to our written conversation about writing to one another and about Christmas, and both expressing gratitude for all she has gained.

November: Planning my future

'So nice hearing from you... For sure I am going to miss writing to you as well.

'Wow Christmas should be very exciting where you live, decorating streets? I have never seen such a thing. We do decorate our Christmas trees but only in our houses.

My time on Kira Farm is getting shorter. Next month this time I will be home so I am making plans on what to do when I get home. I am so good at tailoring and hair dressing, by the time I get home it will be Christmas time so many women will want to look good so am sure I will make some money. I am also planning on making some garments for people to buy as their Christmas wear. With the money I will get I will draw more plans for the year. I am not worried of finding any failures because I have been blessed with a lot of skills so I cannot fail to make it in at least one of the so many skills I now have.

'Thanks a lot for being a huge blessing in my life'.

December: Looking forward to a new life at home!

'Greetings of joy from Kira Farm. Hope all is well with you... I am happy to let you know that I have finally come to the end of my training on Kira.

Thanks a lot for supporting my journey of transformation. I came into the gates of Kira, confused and hopeless. As I leave for home I am going back full of hope and abilities of having a better life.

PTO

Our New Year's Eve Family Party

I have heard a number of youths from my district who have made it through after attaining the training. I am looking forward to meeting them for more advice on how to start up a new life in. I am happy this is not going to be difficult because we have been given phones on Kira.

'I will always be so grateful for blessing me with this opportunity. Hope you continue to be a blessing to so many other youths through Amigos.

'I wish you a Merry Christmas and a happy new year.

Yours.

Prossy.'

Christian Aid Speaker at Morning Service

On 10th March we will have an overseas visitor from Sierra Leone. Joanna Tom-Kargbo is Christian Aid's Senior Health Programme Manager, and is a registered nurse herself.

The theme for Christian Aid Week 2019 is maternal health and Joanna will bring a wealth of stories from Christian Aid's work in Sierra Leone where 10 women die in childbirth every day. It is the most dangerous place in the world to give birth.

Posters will be put up in good time and other congregations will be invited as well. We will be arranging a bring your own or a bring and share lunch after the service to allow time to talk with our speaker and learn more of the work of the charity. Joanna will be speaking in our church service, and will be giving stories of life in Sierra Leone at the lunch too. We do hope you all can join us, and there will be more information in next month's Messenger.

David and Ronnie.

EVENTS

Start sharpening up those "little grey cells" for our ever popular Quiz which will be on Saturday 27th April 2019. Teams of between 4-6 persons are welcome, so do not worry, you will not be asked to answer all the questions on your own!

Refreshments will be provided.

Ronnie & David Wilson are kindly holding a Coffee Morning at their home on Saturday 13th July between 10-12 noon.

If you could hold a similar event at your home then please have a word with either Joy Morley or Jack Neville and they will gladly tell you what is involved. It is really simple and you do not have to have acres of space. The months of May/June/August & September are available.

Would everyone please be aware that there will be no Spring Fair, this year.

Young Families Work

The children and their leaders have had great fun over the Christmas period. We were sad that Jo was unwell during this time and missed her a lot, but were grateful for the preparations she had already made and the work already done for the many Christmas activities.

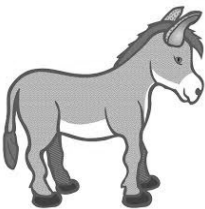

And there were lots of lovely activities happening, with the Christmas story and its message of love being heard many times over...

Café Church with the Christingles was probably one of the first, setting the mood for what was to come in the following days leading up to Christmas Day itself: the lighting of the Christingles made by the children, and the customary dipping low of the lights during worship time, which added to the overall lovely atmosphere.

The following week several of the families from Parents and Toddlers had a marvellous outing to the Big Sheep Play Area. This was a big treat, arranged thanks to Joy's negotiating skills. Father Christmas visited them there too as he/she (Joan!) does every year with a present for each child. A week later, back in Christ Church, the children acted out the Nativity Story whilst it was being told by Joan in her inimitable way, followed by a party tea and games – all much enjoyed.

And then of course there were the special services – the Sunday Club Nativity Service and the Crib Service, both seemingly chaotic(!) but undoubtedly enjoyed by everyone there whether directly involved or as part of the congregation. We heard it said so many times by families who came how much they appreciate(d) the atmosphere at Christ Church – how informal and comfortable and welcoming it is.

The donkeys from Clovelly came on their annual visit too! And what a day it was for The Nativity Trail! The skies opened up and it was unbelievably wet, but this did not deter the characters determinedly setting forth from Christ Church, or the be-tinselled donkeys and their keepers from walking up and down the High Street, or Shirley playing carols on her flute at every station. Thanks to the dedication of those who were the Nativity Story characters at each of the stations it was a great success with many families taking part. The hot soup back at Christ Church was a success too!!

Then Christmas moved into the New Year...the New Year's Eve Family Party being huge fun and very much to be repeated. The church was alive with laughter and music, with dancing and games for all ages. Do make sure you come next year!

Now we think about the year to come.... Already we have had another very full and lively Café Church in January which focussed on stars and constellations and light, inspired by the story of the Wise Men and the star with the biggest shine ever! And after a very busy 'crafty' afternoon and a wonderful tea, the children as usual just didn't want to go home(!)

At the next Café Church we will be hearing about The Prodigal Son, which will be the first of several parable stories told in this coming year.

Now, much to everyone's pleasure, all of our activities have started again and we are looking forward to a very full and active 2019.

But before then - a big thank you to everyone who contributed in any and every way to the Young Families Work in 2018 and to the activities mentioned above, and for all the love and support and prayers we have received from so many of you. We feel truly blessed.

Love and prayers,
Jo and Anthea

Christ Church Family News

There are many of our church family on the sick list and some house-bound. Some are named in the Prayer Book, which is kept in the vestry and used at prayer meetings, but may not always be used in Sunday services while we consider the implications of new legislation around data protection.

If you would like your name to be added to the list in the Prayer Book, please speak to the duty elder on a Sunday, and indicate whether or not you would like to be included in congregational prayers in the Sunday service.
